Evangelism is telling people about the life and teaching of Jesus Christ to encourage them also to become his followers. It takes its name from the Greek word 'euangelion' which means 'gospel' or 'good news'. It might be one person speaking to many others or a one-to-one conversation. It might be through actions rather than words.

Evangelism—Christianity

The sharing of that truth — the good news of Jesus — is called evangelism. What Is the Meaning of The Word Evangelism? Evangelism means preaching, announcing, or otherwise communicating the gospel, our salvation. It's delivering the message that Jesus Christ is not only the Son of God but also gave His life as a sacrifice for our sins. In doing so, He ensured eternal life for anyone who believes.

What Is Evangelism?—Christianity.com

Lifestyle evangelism has been popular since the 1990s, and many Western Christians have sought to share their faith through their lifestyle in addition to their verbal testimony. In contrast with other methods such as tracts, crusades, and media-based outreach, popular in the mid-twentieth century, lifestyle evangelism focuses on building relationships with one person at a time.

Evangelism Is Sharing an Experience, Not Closing a Deal. You were born again for evangelism. Jesus said if we follow Him, we will be fishers of men (Matthew 4:19). He also said we would receive the Holy Spirit and be His witnesses (Acts 1:8). Both of these passages remind us that Christians should be evangelists.

Evangelism Is Sharing an Experience, Not Closing a Deal

Biblical evangelism - The good news and the bad news The word "gospel" means "good news." While many well-meaning Christians begin their evangelistic efforts with the good news of God's love for mankind, that message is lost on unbelievers who must first come to grips with the extent of the bad news.

What is the biblical method of evangelism? | GotQuestions.org

The authors are theologically aware enough to know that in evangelism we depend on God, through His Spirit to work in the hearts and minds of the listeners and that it is the Spirit who guides us into opportunities to share the gospel. Recognizing that anytime a person gives his or her life to Jesus Christ it is never a solo operation.
